

ON BOARD with DeCamp

Second Edition, June 2015

Thank You to Our Passengers

DeCamp wants to thank our passengers for the overwhelming response to our first newsletter. Many of you wrote us with thoughts and suggestions for future editions and we appreciate all of them. Always feel free to tell us your ideas.

Community News

DeCamp is very proud to have been a sponsor of the Montclair Scholarship Fund as they announced the new "Clem Taylor Journalism Scholarship," to honor the CBS "60 Minutes" producer and gifted journalist who passed away last year.

The $10,000 scholarship will be awarded annually to a Montclair HS graduating senior who intends to pursue a career in journalism. The event was held at the Yogi Berra Museum in Montclair.

DeCamp Passenger Advisory Committee

We continue to meet with our Advisory Committee made up of several passengers who volunteer their time to advise us on customer service. They provide us with an inside view of the rider experience and how to make your commute as comfortable as possible. For more information and to offer your own ideas, follow Adam Shapiro on Twitter at: Twitter.com/adamjshapiro.

Don't Leave it Behind

Mobile tablets, e-readers and smartphones are finding their way to our Lost & Found at a rate that will soon surpass paperback books. We know how valuable they are. Stop by or call us and we'll put them aside for you.

Our Lost & Found is located in our office at 101 Greenwood Ave. in Montclair. Hours are Monday to Friday, 9:00am to 5:00pm or call us at (973) 783-7500.

Stay Up-to-Date

Twitter is the quickest and most reliable way to stay informed about traffic and weather delays and up-to-the-minute travel information. Even if you don't currently have a Twitter account, you can download the app on your smartphone and simply follow us @DeCampBusLines. Our dispatchers put out updates as soon as soon as they receive them.

Please feel free to email your suggestions for future newsletters.
